2. [] LIAISON Called Phil Lacovara, Chief Counsel, House Committee on Standards of Official Conduct, regarding his desire to insert the word ordinarily in a sentence in the Memorandum of Understanding so it would read, "Contacts by the Committee with CIA employees will ordinarily be arranged through the Coordination and Review Staff." (See Memorandum for the Record.)

3. [] LIAISON Called Bill Miller, Staff Director, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence, to tell him that in view of the departure of [] and for other reasons, the Director had indicated that he was looking to me to reconcile the position taken in PRM-11 with the draft proposals of the Select Committee regarding charters for intelligence agencies. I talked with Miller about the specifics with respect to DIA, CIA, NSA and others. Miller indicated that language for these "corps agencies" was in process and should be available soon. I told him that we would stay in close touch on this subject.

12. [] LIAISON Telephoned Philip A. Lacovara, Special Counsel, House Committee on Standards of Official Conduct, to advise him that our Memorandum of Understanding and the Nondisclosure Agreement with the Committee would probably reach him by courier early 7 June. I also discussed with him the matter of interim Nondisclosure Agreements to be signed by John W. Nields, Jr., Special Counsel, and Martha Talley, of the Committee staff, since they would be reviewing classified material on this date. Lacovara agreed to my suggestion that both sign the current draft. If it turns out that this is to be amended we will destroy these and ask for their signatures on two new agreements. Lacovara again agreed.

20. [] LIAISON Received a call from Rick Grawey, staff member of the House Government Operations Committee, who, on behalf of Chairman Jack Brooks (D., Texas), has been following the problem of eligibility of reemployed CIARDS annuitants for further retirement benefits. Grawey said he has been getting strong pressure from the Chairman's people to wrap up this matter. He requested that this concern be passed along. I told him that our people are moving as quickly as possible but this matter is complicated and all concerned want to be assured that the legal considerations are carefully reviewed and proper decisions made. I said we would send him a rundown of the Agency's program to implement the Civil Service Commission's new policy as well as a copy of the Agency notice to all retirees and the General Counsel's brief on "waiver" of benefits under CIARDS to allow recomputation. [] DD/Pers, and [] OGC, were advised.
